A STREET CROSSING.

Dangers Existing Where a Rail-Road Is.

A STREET CAR CRASHED INTO.

One Person Instantly Killed and Thirteen Others Seriously Injured, Some of Whom May Die—Carelessness the Cause of the Accident—Names of the Dead and Injured.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Another street crossing horror occurred here last night. A Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago limited passenger train crashed into a Forty-seventh street car at the Stewart street crossing, instantly killing one passenger and injuring thirteen others, some of whom will die. The accident happened at a crossing made dangerous to surface transportation by a network of fourteen tracks.

The following is a list of the killed and injured:

Unknown woman, body found on pilot of engine dead, and removed to McInerney's morgue.

Reinhold Leonhardt, 1638 West Forty-eighth street, cut about the head.

Unknown woman, skull fractured; taken to the county hospital and will die.

Lizzie Peterson, 17 Plymouth place, cut about the face and head.

George Harris, Fifty-first and Butterfield streets, cut about the face.

Lizzie Savage, 4430 School street, side bruised and head cut.

Joseph Winterhulle, 4080 Wentworth avenue, cut and bruised about the head.

Patrick Kreigel, Forty-sixth and School streets, head cut.

Mabel Hilden, 4409 Wabash avenue, bad cut on left side of head and eye injured.

Mary Frazer, 4206 Oakwald avenue, scalp cut.

Frank Kopa, 208 Ramsey street, internal injuries and cut about the face.

Joseph Kopa, his son, cut about head and shoulders.

Richard Hasch, Fortieth and School streets, head cut.

The accident is said to have been due to the combined carelessness, or stupidity, of three men—Herman Albrecht, the crossing keeper; Joseph Flannigan, conductor of the street car, and Michael Crogan, the driver. The facts, as generally admitted, are as follows: The guard gates had been lowered for a passing freight train and were being raised as the car approached the crossing.

Albrecht worked the gates, and by his own story appears to be guilty of gross carelessness. The tracks were clear on either side, the electric lights illumined the tracks for a mile in each direction, and yet he did not see the Fort Wayne limited bearing down on his crossing at the rate of forty miles an hour.

As Albrecht raised the gates Driver Crogan whipped up his horses and in an instant was on the tracks just in front of the speeding train. The engineer pulled his whistle valve, the crossing keeper, driver and conductor looked around for the first time and screamed a too tardy warning. There was a crash, a score of human voices raised in the agony of terror and the street car and its burden of fourteen people were hurled, splintered and crushed fifty feet ahead of the train.

Minutes of surrounding houses rushed out and in an instant there was a crowd on the scene. Patrol wagons, loaded with officers from half a dozen police stations were sent to the spot. Surgeons were summoned, and the saloon of Hunnebin Brothers, at Forty-seventh street and Stewart avenue, was transferred into a temporary hospital, to which the rescuers bore their loads.

Amid the mass of wreckage were half a dozen bleeding and helpless human forms. These were tenderly raised and were carried to the saloon, while their fellow passengers, less seriously injured, were helped to the same place, where the doctors waited on them.

A Strike Soon Adjusted.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Jan. 15.—A strike occurred yesterday in the Chicago and Erie Railroad company's shops in this city. The machinists and boiler-makers quit work on account of being required to work overtime at the same rate of wages. The company agreed to abolish further demands for overtime and to employ sufficient force so as not to make it necessary for employees to put in extra time. The matter was amicably adjusted and the men resumed their places.

Keeping the Affair Silent.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Jan. 15.—Quite a serious accident occurred late last night on the Central railroad of New Jersey, between Plainfield and Roselle. The railroad officials are very reticent, and but little can be learned concerning the accident. It is known that the Royal Blue line westbound train ran into the rear end of a fast freight. Both trains were derailed and much damage was done but it is not known whether any lives were lost or whether any one was hurt.

A Montenegrin Agitator Killed.

BUDA PESTH, Jan. 15.—A dispatch from Cattaro, a seaport town of Austro-Hungary in Dalmatia, states that the noted Montenegrin agitator, Nacevisca, was stabbed to death near Cattaro by two of his fellow-countrymen. It is stated that the motives for the crime were of a political nature. The murdered man was a relative of Princess Milena, wife of Prince Nicholas, the ruler of Montenegro.

ONE TOO MANY.

The Interesting Denouement of a Little Spree.

OMAHA, Jan. 15.—J. D. Sipple, a wealthy stock dealer of Galesburg, Ill., was released from jail yesterday, where he has been held for the last week on the charge of insanity. Sipple left Galesburg two weeks ago for California. There he invested $10,000 in a stock farm and started home. On his person were money and checks amounting to $3,000, also a fine gold watch.

While en route from Denver to Omaha he took a drink with an alleged traveling man, and knew nothing more until he came to his senses in the Omaha jail yesterday. He was found at the depot evidently drunk, Sunday. There was nothing on his person to identify him, and his valuables were gone. When he recovered he immediately wired to Galesburg and received funds.

Railroad Building.

ANGOLA, Ind., Jan. 15.—Interest in the Toledo and Chicago Bee line railroad has again been awakened, by the statement of the engineer in charge of the Wabash extension from Montpelier, O., to Chicago, work on which is now being pushed rapidly through the southern part of this county and La-grange. This gentleman makes the positive assertion that the Toledo and Chicago Bee line will be in operation through Angola and Lagrange before the Wabash extension is completed, and that a large force of men will be placed at work on the former road before many weeks. The officials of the road also say they have a surprise in store for the people along the route. The surveying party of the company is still in the field, working toward Chicago.

The Strike Over.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 15.—The street car strike is practically over and all cars are running on time as if nothing had happened. Under the terms of the temporary settlement, the men returned to work and will hold a conference with the company's officers in an attempt to settle the difficulties. If they fail arbiters are to be appointed. Under this agreement, the strikers' committee met President Frenzel yesterday and he agreed to restore the badges, thus surrendering the point in controversy. There are some minor questions to be settled but it is believed that no further trouble will result. All the cases filed against the strikers were dismissed yesterday by the company's officers.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 15.—Parkersburg is preparing for the worst in the way of a flood. It has rained here steadily, and at the headwaters of the Kanawha, for the past thirty-six hours. A CARDINAL DEAD.

Manning Succumbs to the Prevailing Complaint.

ANOTHER VICTIM TO THE LIST.

A Brief Biography of His Eventful Life.

A Montenegrin Agitator Killed—Death of the Prince of Wales' Oldest Son. Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Cardinal Manning died Thursday morning.

Henry Edward Manning, cardinal, priest and architect of Westminster, was one of the most striking figures in English society. Although by birth and education an aristocrat, by inclination a Conservative, he became the friend of the people in their struggles for life, and was drawn into the ranks of the Gladstonians in the hope that Ireland, which he regarded as the "Island of Saints," might be pacified by the power of Hawarden.

Henry Manning was born in 1808. His father was a London merchant, and at one time governor of the Bank of England. Young Manning was sent to the fashionable public schools of Harrow, and afterward to Merton college, Oxford, where he became the friend of such men as Gladstone, the Wilberforces, Newman, Heber and Percy Smythe. After a successful college career he took holy orders and was appointed rector of Tavington, in Shropshire, in 1834.

He soon afterward married Miss Sargent, whose two sisters were the wives of Samuel Wilberforce, afterward the celebrated bishop, and his brother, Henry Wilberforce. Mrs. Manning died a few months after her marriage. Her husband was afterward appointed archdeacon of Chester. In the tractarian movement at Oxford Archdeacon Manning had played a considerable part, but it was quite inconspicuously that he drifted into the fold of the Catholic church.

On one occasion he preached a violent tirade against the pope at Oxford, and Newman, who was on the point of renouncing his religion, refused to receive his old friend. In 1851, owing to the Gorham decision, Manning joined the Catholic church, entered the priesthood, and six years later founded the congregation of Oblates of St. Charles Borromeo. In 1855 he succeeded Cardinal Wiseman as archbishop of Westminster. In 1855 he became a cardinal.

On June 8, 1890, Cardinal Manning celebrated the twenty-fifth year of his archiepiscopate, when, not only Catholic England, headed by the Duke of Norfolk, but his Protestant fellow-subjects joined in paying the pure-minded priest honor. He was a very prolific writer.

PLOTTERS ARRESTED.

The Ruler of Bulgaria in Danger of His Life.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The Eclair today publishes a dispatch from Sofia stating that fifty army officers have been arrested in that city on the charge of being implicated in a plot against the lives of Prince Ferdinand, the ruler of Bulgaria, and M. Stambuloff, the Bulgarian prime minister.

The dispatch adds that a report is current in Belgrade that Prince Ferdinand had a narrow escape from being poisoned at the hands of the palace cook. Fortunately the man was observed acting in a suspicious manner. He was watched and detected in the very act of placing the strychnine in some dish he had prepared for the prince and immediately placed under arrest.

Suppressed the News.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times, referring to the news of the defeat of the Germans in Africa, says: "The German government must have withheld the news of Captain Krenzlauer's defeat for three weeks, long enough to receive news of the result of its retaliatory expedition, which it is therefore feared was also disastrous."

Some Were Saved.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—A dispatch from Hong Kong states that news has reached there from Caphi point that the native passengers of the steamer Nannouch, which foundered off that place were saved by fishermen. It was at first supposed that all on board the Nannouch, 414 persons, including the European crew, had gone down with the steamer.

VIENNA, Jan. 15.—It is reported from Constantinople that by his personal influence the sultan has succeeded in bringing about a satisfactory settlement of the Chadouine affair.

GAS EXPLOSION.

A House Blown to Pieces and a Number of People Injured.

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 15.—A terrific gas explosion occurred here at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Dave Dillon's boarding house was blown to pieces and a number of people badly injured. Dillon went into the cellar to see where the gas leak was located. He struck a match and the explosion followed. Mrs. Dillon, his wife, was badly injured about the head and breast. Mand Dillon, his daughter, had both legs broken and was badly burned. John Donahoe, a wire drawer, who boarded there sustained a fracture of both ankles, and Tom Kilbane was seriously cut about the head.

Dillon was blown out of the cellar and across the street, but was not seriously hurt. The explosion was caused by a break in the main pipe and the gas followed the service pipe into the house. The ground for half a square around the wrecked house was strewn by debris, and caught fire and raged furiously for an hour or more until the mains were cut.

Another Shortly Afterwards.

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 15.—The excitement occasioned by the gas explosion which wrecked David Dillon's house Wednesday night had scarcely subsided, and men were still at work removing the debris from Dillon's ill-fated residence, when another deadly explosion rent the house of William Shively, on the opposite side of the street. Mr. Shively, wife and daughter were seated near the fire discussing the previous accident at the time.

Miss Mand Dillon at that moment was lying in an adjacent room suffering acute agony from her terrible burns and wounds, she having been carried into the Shively's upon being dug out from the wreck of her father's house. The Anderson fire department having been on the scene already was able to assist in preventing the flames from spreading, while citizens with willing hands tore to pieces the wreck of Shively's house in the search for the bodies. All were recovered without fatal injuries, perhaps, save Miss Dillon, who now that she had been through two explosions will probably die.

MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

Interest in the Uprising Awakened by Recent Movements of Troops.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Jan. 15.—The excitement over the Garza revolution was revived at military department headquarters here yesterday afternoon by the following telegram from Major Lewis T. Morris, in command at Fort McIntosh which was received by General David S. Stanley:

"It is rumored that a large party of revolutionists of Garza men left San Antonio, Tex., about the 6th or 7th of this month headed for Del Rio, Tex. I give this report for what it is worth."

Fort Clarke is located at Del Rio, and the three troops of infantry stationed there have been notified to keep a close watch on the crossings in that vicinity and prevent the reported force of Garza men from getting into Mexico.

Asking for a Receiver.

MARION, Ind., Jan. 15.—Alfred C. Antrun, of the Farmer's Co-operative Dairy association, of Xenia, demands a receiver. Organized July 16 last, the history of the company is one of disaster. Its thirty-seven members have paid in $5,000 capital. Two acres of land were donated. The buildings and machinery are not of a sufficient value to satisfy the indebtedness, about $1,000 and the money paid by the farmers is a dead loss. The operation of the creamery has been abandoned. This company was organized by the same person, W. H. Foster, to whom fifty-two farmers about Marion paid $12 each, to be released from a similar contract before any active operations had been commenced. The Xenia agriculturists went ahead, but with more disastrous results.

Caused by a Bottle of Whisky.

CORINNE, Mich., Jan. 15.—Early yesterday morning Dan McArthur, a laborer, of this city, was murdered by Charles S. Spang and Dan Beaton, laborers from Hunt's Spn., and two other men. Chambers and T. C. McGinnis, are held as accessories. The trouble arose over a bottle of whisky which the murdered man possessed. The latter bested his opponents, and while engaged with one, one of the others stabbed him three times in the breast. He staggered and fell and died in ten minutes. The quartette are under guard awaiting the arrival of the sheriff from St. Ignace.

Hanging in the Balance.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The nomination of Louis G. Rathbone, to be postmaster of E'mira, N. Y., was debated yesterday afternoon in secret session. Senator Hill opposed the nomination, and it was sent back to the committee on postoffices and post roads until further information concerning the removal of Mr. Rathbone's predecessor, Mr. Flood, and the appointment of Mr. Rathbone could be procured.

Saved from a Live Burial.

BRAZIL, Ind., Jan. 15.—Some time ago Dr. Smith operated on a Frenchman named Devine, living here, for an abscess of the liver. The patient grew better until day before yesterday when he suddenly sank away, and his attendants thought he was dead. Three hours later, while arrangements were being made for his funeral, he suddenly raised up from his couch. His condition now promises recovery.

Frozen Over.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 15.—For the first time in four years the Mississippi river is frozen over at this city. The ice gorge begins at Carondelet, nine miles south of this city, and extends to the Illinois shore. River men express the fear that the river will not be open for boats in side of thirty days. If the present cold weather keeps up and the ice should move with a rush it is feared much damage will be done to river craft.

A suggestion to the City Council: What the Fire Department needs more than anything else is some quick method of getting the hose carriages to a fire when one breaks out.

If all the Maysville money invested elsewhere of late years had been invested at home in small enterprises like J. H. Hains & Son's tobacco factory, this city would have been entering upon a genuine boom just about this time.

If the Revisory Commission's new arrangement of judicial districts is adopted, Mason County will be in a solidly Democratic circuit. She is placed in the Twenty-second district, the other counties in it being Bracken, Robertson, Pendleton and Lewis. Nicholas is placed in the Twenty-third district. The list as given in the Courier-Journal doesn't tell what was done with Fleming.

"What purports to be the December statement of the public debt," says the Pittsburg Post, "sets forth in the usual black-faced figures an apparent available balance of $34,474,128. Of this nearly $16,000,000 is subsidiary coinage, not available as a legal tender for the payment of government obligations, and about $15,500,000 deposits in national banks, and legally, but not practically, available as a balance. The really available excess of cash in the hands of the government at the time the statement was made up was about $3,000,000. This is the doctored statement of Secretary Foster. Made up on the same manner as Secretaries Manning, Fairchild and Windom prepared their monthly statements, and including the $50,000,000 bank note redemption trust fund as a liability and not as an asset, there would be a Treasury deficiency of over forty million dollars. So much for the Billion Congress."

In 1852 he was made a Knight Templar by Webb Commandery No. 1, of Lexington. He afterwards became a member of Maysville Commandery No. 10, and was the oldest Knight Templar in this city.

The funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 2 p. m. at the First Baptist Church by Rev. J. E. Wright. The services will be under the auspices of Mays-Commandery.

A big rise is reported at headwaters. The river is rising fast here. Mr. WILL JENKINS slipped and fell last night, receiving painful injuries. Nothing funnier than "She Couldn't Marry Three" has ever been seen. See notice elsewhere by Mrs. Eliza J. Martin, executrix of Emile Martin. Mr. CHARLES ROSENBAU is in New York buying spring goods for the Bee Hive. The universal verdict is "She Couldn't Marry Three" is the best play on the road. Mr. CHARLETON ALEXANDER, Paris' wealthy banker, slipped on the ice and broke one of his arms. See the realistic fishing village, with real boats, real lighthouses, etc., in "She Couldn't Marry Three." The scenery used in the production of "She Couldn't Marry Three" is the most sensational and beautiful. FRANK D. OWENS, who lives with Mr. L. W. Galbraith, had one shoulder dis- located last night while coasting. LA GRIPPE surely conquered by Dr. Hale's Household Ointment and House- hold Tea, sold by Power & Reynolds. The Ladies' Exchange of the First Presbyterian Church will be open to- morrow morning from 10 to 12 o'clock. No more exciting and thrilling sensa- tional effects ever used than in the pro- duction of "She Couldn't Marry Three." Mr. E. P. The audience rise to their feet with excitement at the appearance of the lightning express in "She Couldn't Marry Three." Mr. JOHN WALSH has secured a pen- sion of $6 per month from September 27, 1890, for Alfred Rogers, of Sherburne, Bath County. JOHN H. PERRY, an aged and respected citizen of Nicholas County, died a few days since, of cancer. He was born near Mayslick November 30, 1805. It is an actual fact that an audience has been heard to laugh half a mile from the theatre during the production of "She Couldn't Marry Three." The Nicholas County Republicans have re-elected H. B. Bryson Chairman and C. U. Bramblett Secretary of the County Executive Committee for 1892. BALLENGER's goods are just what he represents them. His stock of watches, clocks and jewelry is the best ever brought to Maysville. An elegant line of charms, rings, and other novelties always on hand. The bad weather this week having prevented a great many seeing him, Dr. Stockdale has consented to remain one more week at the Central Hotel, where he is prepared to see the afflicted and to administer to their wants. THE CITY DEBT. It Now Amounts to $116,000 in Round Numbers—Reduced $25,000. Standing Committees—Names of Cer- tain Alleys and Streets Changed Doings of Council. All members of the City Council were present at the adjourned meeting last evening except Mr. Blatterman. Deputy Marshal Mangan's bond with Sam T. Hickman, H. G. Wells and John Ryan as sureties, was presented and ac- cepted. Deputy Marshal Bland's bond, with W. H. Yancey, Mose Daulton, T. A. Keith and J. L. Browning as sureties, was pre- sented and accepted. Deputy Marshal Downey's bond, with J. M. Hunt, J. T. Strode and H. Ficklin as sureties was presented and accepted. Deputy Marshal Crawford's bond, with H. Ficklin, C. P. Beckett, G. N. Crawford and W. T. Martin, Jr., as sureties, was presented and accepted. Deputy Marshal Stockdale's bond, showed W. B. Mathews and Simon Nelson as sureties. It was accepted. Deputy Marshal McDonald gave H. H. Collins and T. M. Pearce as sureties on his bond. It was accepted. The bond of Mrs. Sarah Sapp as Mat- ron of the alms house was presented, with C. H. White and C. B. Pearce, Jr., as sureties. Attention was called to the law preventing any member of Council from going on the bond of any city official, and the bond was returned. The Deputy Marshals were all sworn in, Mayor Pearce administering the oath of office. Chairman Ficklin of the Committee on Claims and Accounts read a report of the settlements with the Mayor, Marshal and Treasurer for past year. Costs worked out in 1891 due Mayor Pearce, $428.90. Costs worked out due C. D. Newell, ex-City Prosecutor, $8. Costs worked out, due Jas. N. Kehoe, City Prosecutor, $5. Total $441.90. Total col- lections of taxes made by Marshal Hefflin $337.96. Commission for collecting same $50.70; commission of fines and old bonds $167.60, leaving balance due from him $119.66, which has been paid into the treasury. The settlement with Treasurer Coch- ran shows the following for 1891: Railroad bonds redeemed (8).....$ 8,000.00 Bond coupons paid (308)..... 5,656.30 Notes of general fund..... 10,000.00 Notes of school fund..... 5,200.00 Interest on 15 $1,000 bonds..... 900.00 Interest on general fund notes..... 131.51 Interest on school fund notes..... 128.41 Total debt paid.....$20,016.03 The amount on hand Jan. 1st, 1892, was as follows: General fund.....$ 771.40 White school fund..... 965.00 Colored school fund..... 208.97 Total.....$2,045.37 A certificate of the cashier of the Bank of Maysville was filed showing that said sum was on deposit to the credit of the Treasurer. The report showed also that the present debt of the city amounts to $116,326, of which $50,000 is on water works bonds and $66,326 on railroad bonds. The debt has been reduced from $141,- 000 to $116,000 in about five years. During part of that period too the rate of taxa- tion was only $1 on the $100, and one or two years it was only $1.10 on the $100. Of the present debt of the city the sum of $66,000 is drawing only 5 per cent. in- terest. This is a very creditable showing for the "kid" Council as it is sometimes called. Messrs. Fitzgerald and Newell were appointed a committee to examine the settlements above mentioned, which they did, and reported everything correct. On motion the bonds and coupons that had been paid were burned in the presence of the Council. The rules were suspended and the or- dinance changing the names of certain streets and alleys was passed. The changes made were as follows: Vine alley in First ward to Gray alley; Vine street in Fourth ward to Casto street; Vine alley in Fifth ward to Morrison al- ley; Mulberry alley in Fifth ward to Hall's alley; Plum alley in Fifth ward to Stan- ton alley; Wood street in Fourth ward to Bank street; Walnut street in Sixth ward to Chester street; Race street in Sixth ward to Forest avenue; Central avenue in Sixth ward to East Third street; Hus- ton avenue in Sixth ward to Washington street; Boone and Grant streets to Fifth street; and Fifth street to Sixth street. The streets and alleys changed will be properly marked by street and alley signs by Mr. W. C. Pelham without any extra charge. The Committee on Fire Department to whom was referred the matter of estab- lishing a fire alarm system reported they had examined the Gamewell Electric Fire Alarm System, and that it was the judgment of the committee that the city should at once enter into a contract for the purchase of the system. The report was received. A proposition was read from said Gamewell Company for the establishment of the system in this city for $3,200, payable in three years from date of the completion and acceptance of the system. Mr. Wood moved that the committee be authorized to accept the proposition. Mr. Wadsworth favored the motion. Mr. Newell opposed it. Mr. Kehoe moved to recommit the matter to the committee with instructions to correspond with other cities the size of Maysville and ascertain what system they use and its cost; also to investigate and report as to reorganizing the fire department and cost of said reorganization. Mr. Kehoe's motion prevailed.

 City Prosecutor Kehoe called attention to the sale of "meeting house square" in Fifth ward under a decree of the Mason Circuit Court in the exparte suit of the trustees of the Christian Church, and the matter was referred to Committee on Public Buildings with power to act.
 The committee reported adversely on the petition of T. M. Fowler for coffee house license.
 The following accounts were allowed:
 D. M. Runyon, $45, insurance on alms house for three years; W. R. Warder, $30, insurance on school house No. 2 for three years; G. S. Judd $20.40, insurance on school No. 3 for three years.
 President Cox then announced the list of standing committees for this year. He stated he had no excuse or apologies to make for any of the appointments. He thought he had a list of good committees.
 There being eighteen members now and only fifteen committees, three were left without a chairmanship, but the President announced that he had tried to make up for this by giving such members positions on an extra number of the committees.
 On motion of Mr. Wadsworth, Mr. Cox was added to the Committee on Internal

MISS LILLIAN KENNEDY has created a furore as "Bess" in "She Couldn't Marry Three."
 SAYS the Dover News: "Mr. H. C.
 Botts, representative for the New Enterprise Tobacco Warehouse, of Louisville, has been quite ill for several weeks at his home near Dover with typhoid fever.
 We are glad to state that he is improving."
 CHARLES SLITZ died yesterday afternoon shortly before one o'clock at the family residence, corner Fourth and Limestone.
 He had been in failing health several years. For a number of years he filled the position of clerk at the European Hotel, and made friends of all he met, by his courteous manners and exemplary habits. Deceased was twenty-four years of age. His funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MISS AGNES KANE entertained last evening in honor of her charming guest, Miss Green, of Louisville. Various amusements were indulged in until about 10 o'clock, when luncheon was announced.
 After doing ample justice to the delicious repast, the games were concluded with an entirely new and original one entitled "The Heartless Man," after which the guests departed, expressing themselves as having spent a delightful evening. First prizes were awarded to Miss Mattie Oldham and Mr. Peyton Wheeler, and the "booby" was captured by Mr. Charles Fitzgerald.

BROWNING & CO. 8 EAST SECOND STREET.

A MADMAN'S CRIME.

He Shoots a Chicago Physician Dead and Then Surrenders.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Dr. Flavius M. Wilder, a well known physician at 2515 Wabash avenue, was shot and instantly killed by John Redmond, the blacksmith living at 2719 South Park avenue, who came into notoriety for years ago, when his infant daughter disappeared from home. The shooting occurred at Redmond's house.

Dr. Wilder was called to the boarding house, though no one was sick there. He drove up in his cutter, and, alighting, went up on the porch and rang the bell. Redmond opened the door and without a word fired four shots at the doctor, all of which took effect. Two bullets entered Wilder's forehead, just over the eye, and two pierced his chest. He fell to the ground and instantly expired.

Redmond, after shooting the doctor, got into his victim's cutter and drove to the Twenty-second street station, where he gave himself up. Redmond's act of frenzy could not be accounted for. The police when they first arrived on the scene. Redmond, who has been in an asylum, accuses the doctor of having brought disgrace upon his home.

Honored Alive.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 15.—Last night a horrible accident occurred three miles south of this city, at the home of Robert Swanagan. Mrs. Swanagan left her three little children at home while she went on an errand to a neighbor's. When she returned she found the oldest, a little girl of six, lying on the floor in a horrible condition. The little girl had been standing too near the open grate natural gas fire, and her dress was ignited, burning every stitch of clothing from her body. She was horribly burned and her agonizing screams were awful to hear. Death came to her relief at midnight.

Distressing Accident.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 15.—Last night a distressing accident occurred three miles south of this city at the home of Robert Swanagan. Mrs. Swanagan left her three little children, aged respectively, two, four and six, at home while she went to a neighboring farm-house on an errand. When she returned she found the oldest little girl lying on the floor. She had been standing too close to the open grate of a natural gas fire and her clothes took fire, burning every stitch off except the collar band on her dress. Her little body was literally roasted. She died five hours later in awful agony.

Improving on Dog Meat.

ANGOLA, Ind., Jan. 15.—Mrs. W. H. Camp, of this city, is testing the dog meat remedy for consumption. She has never been confined to bed with the disease, but her stomach is unable to bear many kinds of food, and she is otherwise troubled. She began eating the meat and drinking the broth about one month ago, and three dogs have been killed to satisfy the demand. She claims to be improving under the treatment, but others who have watched the progress of the case are of the opinion that the improvement is largely imaginary.

Warned of a Flood.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 15.—The meteorological committee of the chamber of commerce issued a flood warning bulletin at noon yesterday, predicting the Tennessee river would go to the danger line by Saturday morning. The average rainfall over the flood system has been 4.14 inches. Other floods have been caused by five or six inches of rain, and it is reported there are two feet of snow in the mountains at the head waters of the river.

Earthquake in Tennessee.

Two Pumas Killed.

LEIPSI, O., Jan. 15.—The two pumas were driven to a cave Wednesday and both were killed. The male measured seven feet three inches, and the female six feet eight inches. The cave was found to be filled with the bones of dead animals.

Great Storm.

OXFORD, O., Jan. 15.—Henry Corbin, colored, who murdered Mrs. Georgiana Hlomm by crushing her skull with a stick of stove wood, and afterward making a murderous assault upon her daughter, Miss Lizzie, was lynched in the village park yesterday evening shortly after 8 o'clock.

ATE THE BABE.

A Child of Shamus Thrown Into the Street.

OTTAWA, Ill., Jan. 15.—William Dunn yesterday afternoon noticed several dogs quarreling over a white object in the gutter on East Superior street. Investigation showed the object to be the dead body of a newly born female child. A bloody path led from the gutter up to the steps of the old Vette home to the rooms of Widow Whitney and her daughter, Margaret.

The police entered the Whitney rooms, and Margaret confessed that at about 10 o'clock yesterday in the morning she gave birth to the child, and to conceal her shame threw the infant into the street. Both women were taken to the county asylum under arrest as Margaret is in a very precarious condition. Last evening she made a statement exculpating herself and attributing her trouble to Barry White, who has disappeared.
